Fig S1. Visual acuity by letters. Change in visual acuity over the study duration. Baseline acuity represents the mean of the ETDRS letters read at each of the two baseline visits. A small decline in acuity (with quick recovery) is noted following the surgical procedure. The one year acuity change is less than 5 letters for all participants. Acuity is similar for the treated and untreated eye of each participant at the one year visit.