Lee et al. Supplementary Figure 1

Supplementary Figure 1. Image analysis for the measurement of cataract area (CA). CA was calculated with photographs using NIH ImageJ software. CA is defined as the ratio of the area of lens opacity to total corneal area. (A) Anterior segment photographs taken 7 and 14 days after selenite injection. (B) Representative photograph of a dissected lens taken 14 days after sacrifice.