Supplemental Figure 2. Bland-Altman plot for the measured retinal pigment epithelium atrophy area illustrates that there is no systematic difference between the values obtained by the two readers. The inter-observer correlation coefficient for atrophy measurements was 0.998. Measurements differed by > 0.15 mm² in 72 visits, therefore requiring senior grading and arbitration. Average difference between readers ± 1.96 standard deviation (dashed lines).